RESOLUTION 99

A JOINT RESOLUTION DIRECTING THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY PROFESSIONAL REGULATION OF TEACHER LICENSING AND PRACTICES.

Whereas, education is the only occupational field which has not been legally assigned the responsibility for self-discipline; and

Whereas, members of the profession are showing increasing interest in assuming responsibility for setting standards for attracting, training, licensing, advancing and disciplining professional personnel in education; and

Whereas, attracting and retaining highly qualified professional teachers is a matter of utmost importance to the State; and

Whereas, the General Assembly has been, and will again be, asked to authorize the establishment of a Teacher Licensing and Practices Commission;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

Section 1. The Legislative Research Commission is directed to study the question of creation of a board or commission comprised of members of the education profession to regulate the preparation, licensing and certain aspects of performance of persons who teach or perform educational duties in the educational institutions of the State.

Sec. 2. The Legislative Research Commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the 1973 General Assembly.

Sec. 3. This resolution shall become effective upon ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 13th day of July, 1971.
